Returned to El Paso.

Chas. Rokahr, the well known shoe-maker, who recently left for the East to go into business, has lately returned to this city and is now established at 198 Mesa Avenue, in the Van Blarcom block. Messrs. Valdespino and Concho, who purchased his business, have sold again to him and will also work for him. He has the facilities to do better work than ever before.

"THE HADLEY"

A Fine New Apartment House.

The finishing touches are now being put on Prof. Hiram Hadley's new and elegant two story apartment house on North Oregon street on the corner just south of Buckler square.

The building will be known as "The Hadley". Prof. Hadley is well known in this city and New Mexico on account of his work at the College of Agriculture and Mechanical Arts at Mesilla Park, New Mexico.

The building is one of the most substantial in the city. Its walls are of brick and stone well put together, and its broad windows and balcony on the north overlook Buckler square while the elevation of the lot gives a fine view of the city from all sides.

Prof. Hadley concluded some months ago to erect an apartment house in this city simply as an investment, realizing the steady growth of El Paso and its constantly increasing values. The structure on North Oregon is the result. It cost upwards of $6,000 and was planned and built by Buchanan and Powers.

The exterior of the building is of plain red brick, dressed with stone, and the whole has a substantial air about it as if put up to stay. Windows and doors front two streets and admit an abundance of light and air.

The interior of the house is finished in pure white. Gas will be used for lighting purposes for the present and the plumbing throughout is excellent.

The first floor contains a large front room on a level with the street. To the rear of this is a commodious dining room and kitchen finished with all modern improvements. A hallway leads to the left on the ground floor and joins a small flight of steps which connect with the left half of the building, the lower floor of which is several feet above the street.

Along the ground floor on this side are large and airy rooms; their walls spotted, and each of them containing a clothes closet. A flight of broad steps, with oaken balusters, leads from the entrance to the second story and ends in a broad hall which runs the length of the building connecting with an exit at the rear.

Along each side of this hall are some twenty five doors, each opening into as many rooms. These rooms are arranged for use single or en suite and several of them are connected by folding doors.

The rooms all front on the outside of the building, and the windows and doors being exceptionally broad, the interior of the apartments is exceptionally cool and airy. Bath rooms and closets are near the end of the hall on the second story.

The house has already been leased by Mrs. Anderson and will be elegantly furnished throughout. The dining room and kitchen will be first class and the table will be for the use of the lodgers or for the general public. All told there are twenty-seven rooms in the building, and the piece of property with its improvements may well be considered one of the most valuable in this city.

THE REALTY MARKET

The Demand For Building
Lots Greater Than Ever.

RENTS GO DOWN

Very Slightly, But the Demand For Desirable Property Continues Active.

—The Immense Number Of New Cottages Affect the Market.

The real estate market in this city continues firm and prices continue to advance, although there is not such a demand during the summer months for rental property as during the remainder of the season.

This is accounted for by the fact that many residents leave for summer resorts in May and June and offer their houses for rent. Also that the winter tourists begin returning home early in the summer and the transient or renting population is decreased. Rents are but little lower than last year but it is much easier to procure a vacant house now than it was a year ago when it seemed that the demand was far greater than the supply and families were constantly walking the streets in the residence portions of town and besieging rental agents for houses.

Since last year many hundred houses have been erected, a few of them for rental purposes and others for the use of their owners, who removed from rented houses, leaving many vacant. Still there is not the least trouble experienced in finding desirable tenants for desirable property, although probably the greatest demand is for small cottages, renting from $12.50 to $25 monthly.

A few of the realty dealers were seen this morning by a HERALD reporter and all of them were a unit in saying that sales during the present month far exceeded those at any time for years.

E. C. Scott of the Campbell Real Estate company said: "We have sold over 200 lots in the Campbell addition during the past two weeks and have almost disposed of the entire addition; having only about 200 lots remaining. If you want to buy a lot, the value of which will double in a year, now is the time to invest."

Charley Stevens said: "The market continues firm; besides selling many small building lots we have lately made a number of large sales and are figuring on others which will be closed in a few days. Our largest sale this week was for a piece of business property which changed hands for $11,000."

A. P. Coles: "Sales have been better this month than ever before in the history of my business. We have sold many Franklin heights lots besides several pieces of property for large sums and are negotiating other sales. Rents are not much lower than heretofore and inquiries for property continue better than I have ever known."

Federal Soil Tests.

Two more government soil experts arrived at Eddy last night, says a dispatch, to make further tests of the soils of the valley, this time with reference to their adaptability to the culture of the sugar beet. They were A. Higginson and Vernon Bailey, of the division of biology, department of agriculture. They will remain here for two days and then leave for the west, to examine the sugar beet districts of Southern California and the Pacific coast generally. They will formulate a general report of the different localities they visit on their return to Washington. They were favorably impressed with the growth already attained by the beets in the large fields in the neighborhood of Eddy.

Messrs. Means and Gardner, the two experts from the division of soils from the same department, are still in the valley and will not complete their labors before July 1. Their investigation has been of the most exhaustive character.

Four Gallons Helped Him.

EL PASO, May 4, 1899.

W. N. CARL, Dear Sir:—After using four gallons of Carrizo Springs mineral water, and it to be very beneficial for catarrh of the stomach and bloating, or gas in the stomach, it giving me great relief; also correcting constipation to a great degree.

I can cheerfully recommend it to any person suffering from the same troubles.

Would Not Take $100 for His Five Gallons.

EL PASO, April 12, 1899.

I have been suffering from catarrh of the stomach for the past 2 years. Medicine gave me no relief. Have gained more benefit from the Carrizo mineral water in the past three months than all the medicine I have taken, with any stomach complaint. I would not take $100 for my 5 gallon jug if I could not get another, for I feel like it has saved my life and will always praise its healing qualities.
